Argos Risk and 360factors™ Announce Partnership

Argos Risk and 360factors Partner to Deliver Integrated Solutions for Third-Party Risk Management and Regulatory Compliance

MINNEAPOLIS, MN – November 7, 2023 – Argos Risk, a leading provider of Third-Party Risk Intelligence (TPRI), and 360factors, a premier technology company specializing in compliance and risk management software solutions, today announced a partnership. This partnership provides 360factors clients with an integrated solution that enables businesses to navigate the complex landscape of third-party vendor risk management and regulatory compliance.

As financial institutions, FinTechs, and insurance companies have recently selected Predict360, "this partnership aligns with our mission of delivering innovative solutions to help organizations streamline vendor and third-party compliance and risk management," said Carl McCauley, CEO of 360factors. "We are excited to combine forces with Argos Risk and provide a holistic approach to managing financial risks and regulatory requirements."

360factors provides Predict360, an integrated risk and compliance management software solution that improves the quality and value of compliance and risk activity execution through a singular, cloud-based platform.

Argos Risk's flagship solution, AR Surveillance™, provides key insights into a third-party vendor's operations including financial viability, Cybersecurity analysis, legal exposure, business health, ESG rankings, and much more.

"We are thrilled to partner with 360factors to bring even greater value to their clients," said Lori Frank, CEO of Argos Risk. "Our combined expertise and technology will empower businesses to make informed decisions, mitigate risks across multiple domains, and ensure regulatory compliance in an ever-changing environment."

The collaboration between Argos Risk and 360factors comes at a crucial time when organizations are increasingly challenged by the complex landscape of identifying, mitigating, and monitoring the inherent and residual risks associated with third-party vendor relationships.
